ABOUT THE COURSE

Music Ministry Together is a five-day summer school held at Cistercian College Roscrea, for youth and adult leaders who have a passion for liturgical music and the desire to serve as ministers in their parishes, schools and communities. We do not have a minimum or maximum age to attend the course. However those wishing to bring a group under the age of 18 must be accompanied and supervised at all times by adults.

Music Ministry Together is led by internationally known composer, teacher, and liturgical musician Ian Callanan and a dynamic team of adult directors and tutors (all volunteers). The program seeks to fulfil its mission of engaging and empowering young music ministers with a particular emphasis on contemporary church music and liturgy. It is an experiential course, where the participants not only learn new music but are also introduced to various styles of Liturgy, the Eucharist, Sacraments and Catechesis.

While the course is about learning new music and about the ministry of music, there is plenty of time for the participants to have some fun. Nightly entertainment is provided while afternoon activities ranging from swimming to football will ensure that you have an enjoyable few days.

Accommodation in Cistercian College Roscrea is in dormitories. Dorms vary in size from 4 - 7 beds per room to the large dorms of around 20! The dorms have recently been renovated and each bed is contained in its own cubicle. Participants will need to bring bedding with them as this is not provided. Please note you need to also bring your own pillow. There are some ensuite rooms available at an additional cost of €15 per night.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

The cost of the course is Cost €320 (Residential). This includes: course materials, accommodation and all meals. A day attendance rate of €70 (Day Visitor) is also available which covers materials and meals. Please enclose the full course fee with this application. The course fee is non-refundable except in the case of unforeseen circumstances. Please send your completed application form along with full course fees of €320 (residential) or €70 (Day Visitor) to:
